A DECADE OF CHAMPIONS

FOREWORD ROD STREET

This year marks the tenth running of QIPCO British Champions Day, following the inaugural event which took place in 2011. The day could not have got off to a better start with the imperious Frankel wowing the 30,000 strong crowd on course and the millions more watching from home. Since then, it has established itself as one of the great days in the international racing calendar and it is hard to believe that prior to its inception, Britain lacked an end of season flat racing finale to rival that of other racing jurisdictions. Now, alongside Ascot racecourse and with our sponsors QIPCO, we are proud to host an established, world-class event that has consistently attracted the world's best horses and jockeys.

Over the years at both QIPCO British Champions Day and throughout the running of QIPCO British Champions Series we have witnessed a decade of champions who have lit up the racetrack and etched their names in sporting history. In the early years Cirrus des Aigles proved a popular crowd favourite and was followed by other superlative French victors including Charm Spirit, Solow and Almanzor. Whilst Frankel put up a world's best performance on the day in 2012, earning him a rating of 140 which has never been bettered, his progeny Cracksman did something that he never achieved by becoming the first horse to win the same race twice at Champions Day when landing the QIPCO Champion Stakes in 2017 and 2018. Roaring Lion, Minding and Magical are some of the other superstar horses to have set our hearts racing. And the Series itself this year has been just as compelling with Battaash and Stradivarius both landing back to back victories in their respective race categories. The talented Ghaiyyath has emerged as the world's top rated horse this year following stunning victories in three Series races including the Coral Eclipse when he lowered the colours of Enable. She herself made history with a third King George VI and Queen Elizabeth QIPCO Stakes in July and has now been retired to stud following a truly dazzling career.

From a racing perspective, this year's day looks set to maintain those lofty standards with racing superstars at every turn. However, unfortunately it will also be very different with the event taking place behind closed doors following restrictions imposed by Government in response to the Covid-19 pandemic. Nonetheless, we are proud that the day remains the most valuable raceday in Britain again this year, with the QIPCO Champion Stakes the richest race run in 2020. As ever, we remain incredibly grateful to our sponsors QIPCO, who have been our partners from the start, for their continued support, particularly in these extraordinary times. We also extend our thanks to the owners and trainers who continue to support the day.

2020 has been a year that many of us would like to forget but we are looking forward to bringing you unforgettable sporting action to enjoy from the comfort of your home with ITV, RacingTV and Sky Sports Racing and we look forward to welcoming you back to QIPCO British Champions Day in 2021.

QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS SERIES & QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS DAY

This year, we celebrate the tenth running of QIPCO British Champions Series and QIPCO British Champions Day and it is therefore fitting to honour a decade of fantastic racing with the crowning of Champions on what continues to be Britain's richest race day. My brothers and I share a passion for horseracing, and British racing in particular, which is why we choose to base our racing and breeding operations here under the banner of Qatar Racing. It is also why we have committed to investing in British racing and will continue to sponsor British Champions Series - as well as being an official partner of Royal Ascot - until at least 2024. We feel incredibly proud of the growth of the Series and QIPCO British Champions Day itself.

One of the most memorable and scintillating performances from the past ten years is Frankel's victory in 2011's QIPCO 2000 Guineas with his powerful, front-running brilliance. Frankel, considered as one of the best racehorses of all time, ended his legendary career after winning the 2012 renewal of the QIPCO Champion Stakes, his 14th straight victory. Arguably, the most impressive winner of the race in recent times was the son of Frankel, Cracksman, who won the same race back-to-back on QIPCO British Champions Day in 2017 and 2018. Last year's winner, Magical, trained by the formidable Aidan O'Brien who has gone on to win a further three Group 1 races. We are hopeful she will return this year.

The Queen Elizabeth II Stakes is of great significance to my brothers and I; the race has long been recognised as Europe's mile championship won by Frankel in 2011 and then our very own Charm Spirit in 2014. Roaring Lion landed the 2018 renewal and a fourth successive Group 1 race in the process which capped the most remarkable season and saw Roaring Lion crowned Cartier Horse of the Year before his life was tragically cut short after just one season at stud.

We enjoyed much success with Classic-winning Simple Verse who was victorious in the QIPCO British Champions Fillies and Mares Stakes in 2015 having won the St Leger the previous month. Simple Verse is now enjoying life as a broodmare at Tweenhills where she most recently produced a striking filly by Roaring Lion.

We have seen Stradivarius surpass Frankel to win a record thirteen QIPCO British Champion Series races whilst retaining his title in the Weatherbys Hamilton Stayers' Million challenge, witnessed the magnificent Enable win her eleventh Group 1 including a historic three wins in the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth QIPCO Stakes, seen international success from the likes of Australian Champion, Black Caviar, American sprinter, Lady Aurelia, and Deirdre who flew the flag for Japan when winning the Qatar Nassau Stakes to become the first Japanese-trained mare to triumph in the QIPCO British Champions Series.

A personal highlight was to see Qatar Racing's jockey, Oisin Murphy, be crowned Champion Jockey for the first-time last year and our now second in command jockey Cieren Fallon Jr crowned Champion Apprentice. It was very special to watch Oisin and the late Roaring Lion win the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes, however Oisin's QIPCO 2000 Guineas win on Kameko this season was breath-taking; Kameko broke the track record and provided Oisin with his first British Classic victory in the process.

QIPCO British Champions Day sees the best racehorses coming together to compete on a global stage and I am certain we will see yet more top class and thrilling action at this year's culmination of what has been a different but hugely exhilarating and impressive QIPCO British Champions Series. I wish all connections the best of luck.

TEN TOP WINNERS ON QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS DAY

QIPCO British Champions Day has seen some monumental performances since its inception in 2011. Every year the world's best grace the Ascot turf for the UK's richest raceday and we have picked out just a few of the most memorable moments.

1 FRANKEL - Queen Elizabeth Stakes (sponsored by QIPCO) (2011) and QIPCO Champion Stakes (2012)

The colossus signed off his unblemished 14-race career with a decisive victory over Cirrus Des Aigles in the 2012 QIPCO Champion Stakes by a length and three quarters in front of a sellout crowd, having won the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes in emphatic style at the meeting 12 months earlier. There were fabulous scenes in the winner's enclosure with the late Sir Henry Cecil saying: "He's the best I've ever had and best I've ever seen, I'd be very surprised if there's ever been better".

2 CIRRUS DES AIGLES - QIPCO Champion Stakes (2011)

At the time the brilliant French gelding's QIPCO British Champions Stakes win was a superb success that came at the expense of a top quality field that featured six horses all with official ratings of 120 or higher. Cirrus Des Aigles was never far away and kept on strongly to beat So You Think by three-quarters of a length, with Snow Fairy, Middy and Nathaniel the next three home.

3 FARHH - QIPCO Champion Stakes (2013)

The Saeed Bin Suroor-trained five-year-old won a thrilling QIPCO Champion Stakes. He had been off since winning the Al Shaqab Lockinge Stakes five months earlier and raced a little keenly behind his pacemaker, Hunter's Light, before leading well over a furlong out. Cirrus Des Aigles, the favourite, seemed likely to overhaul him but Farhh held him off by a neck. Ruler Of The World, the Investec Derby winner, was half a length further back in third.

4 NOBLE MISSION - QIPCO Champion Stakes (2014)

It was an emotional victory for Noble Mission who emulated his brother, Frankel, who also won the headline race at QIPCO British Champions Day two years previously. Noble Mission and James Doyle held off Al Kazeem, who Doyle had ridden the previous season, up the straight to provide a poignant winner for Lady Jane Cecil, the widow of Frankel's trainer, Sir Henry Cecil, who died in June 2013.

5 MUHAARAR - QIPCO British Champion Sprint Stakes (2015)

Confirmed his status as champion sprinter on his farewell appearance by putting Twilight Son, the Sprint Cup winner, and 18 others firmly in their place under Paul Hanagan in the QIPCO British Champions Sprint. It was his fourth successive Group 1 triumph - a feat rarely achieved in the sprinting ranks. The last to achieve it had been another Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum-owned speedster in Dayjur, back in 1990.

6 SIMPLE VERSE - QIPCO British Champion Fillies & Mares Stakes (2015)

A memorable QIPCO British Champions Day for the title sponsor as their Classic-winning filly bagged a win in the finale of the Fillies & Mares category of the QIPCO British Champions Series. While there had been much drama around her delayed St Leger victory a month before, there was no doubt at all about her win on QIPCO British Champions Day. A game battle with Journey up the straight saw Simple Verse get on top in the final 50 yards, giving Andrea Atzeni his first QIPCO British Champions Day winner.

7 ALMANZOR - QIPCO Champion Stakes (2016)

The brilliant colt had won the French Derby and Irish Champion Stakes en route to the QIPCO Champion Stakes and confirmed himself as the best in Europe with a fluent two-length victory over Found, who had won the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe on her previous start. Always travelling sweetly under Christophe Soumillon, Almanzor breezed ahead in the closing stages without being hard ridden.

8 CRACKSMAN - QIPCO Champion Stakes (2017 and 2018)

Memories of Cracksman's great sire, Frankel, came flooding back as he surged clear in successive renewals of the QIPCO Champion Stakes. In 2017, he had seven lengths to spare over Poet's Word, with Highland Reel third. Cracksman's official rating was afterwards raised to 130 - making him the best three-year-old in the world. More of the same followed 12 months later with a six-length drubbing of Crystal Ocean among others.

9 ROARING LION - Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (sponsored by QIPCO) (2018)

Roaring Lion had already had a fabulous time in 2018 before lining up on QIPCO British Champions Day, arriving on the back of successive wins in the Coral-Eclipse, Juddmonte International Stakes and QIPCO Irish Champion Stakes. Dropped to a mile for the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes on account of the softish ground, the grey was not at his sublime best but he showed terrific resolution to win a compelling renewal by a neck from I Can Fly.

10 KEW GARDENS - QIPCO British Champions Long Distance Cup (2019)

Stradivarius had not been beaten for two years and went off 8/13 favourite to win his 11th successive race in the QIPCO British Champions Long Distance Cup. When he led deep inside the final furlong it seemed he would complete another perfect season but Kew Gardens, the 2018 St Leger winner, ridden to perfection by Donnacha O'Brien, had other ideas and collared him on the line to win by a nose.

LAST YEAR’S WINNER: KEW GARDENS

One of the great QIPCO British Champions Day finishes in its short existence, with Kew Gardens getting the better of superstar stayer Stradivarius by a nose. It looked like the latter, unbeaten for two years, was going to extend his winning sequence to 11 only for Kew Gardens, to rally under Donnacha O’Brien and grab him on the line. The win was also Donnacha’s first at QIPCO British Champions Day which was soon to be followed later in the day with a second aboard Magical.

POSSIBLE CONTENDERS THIS YEAR INCLUDE

STRADIVARIUS Trainer: John Gosden QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 13

The supreme stayer has looked better than ever this term, securing a third triumph in the Gold Cup at Royal Ascot (by ten lengths with Frankie Dettori motionless) before gaining a record fourth triumph in the Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup. However, he did give his bulging fan club a scare by getting hemmed in, only to accelerate into the lead once seeing some daylight. He must have a great chance of adding to his remarkable haul of 13 QIPCO British Champions Series triumphs.

SPANISH MISSION Trainer: Andrew Balding QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 1

Staying races have been difficult to come by in recent years, however when an opportunity arises you have to take it – that’s exactly what Spanish Mission did. Since changing trainer to Andrew Balding midway through the season, Spanish Mission has looked highly progressive with a win in the Chester Stakes first time out for Andrew Balding. Just 22 days later he secured the bet365 Doncaster Cup, and a first Series win. The QIPCO British Champions Long Distance Cup looks to be a competitive affair, and Spanish Mission is certainly not one to discount.

SEARCH FOR A SONG Trainer: Dermot Weld QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 0

Dermot Weld has said that Search For A Song isn’t the easiest to train but there is no doubting her ability as last month she became the first back-to-back winner of the Comer Group International Irish St Leger since Vinnie Roe in the early-2000s. Those Group 1 Classic triumphs over 1m6f at The Curragh have hinted that two miles may well be within her compass. Weld knows better than most what is required to win the race, having landed it with Rite Of Passage (2012) and Forgotten Rules (2014).

LAST YEAR'S WINNER: DONJUAN TRIUMPHANT

Emotions ran high after Donjuan Triumphant had given his owners, King Power Racing, a first Group 1 triumph almost a year after King Power's chairman and CEO, Vichai Srivaddhanaprabha, passed away after a helicopter crash. "He was the first horse the Chairman ever bought, the first horse we had for him, and he would have been so proud of him right now," winning training Andrew Balding said. Donjuan Triumphant won the race by a length and a neck from two-time Qatar Prix de la Foret winner One Master and Forever in Dreams. The win gave jockey Silverstre de Sousa his second QIPCO British Champions Day win and first since 2013.

POSSIBLE CONTENDERS THIS YEAR INCLUDE

OXTED Trainer: Roger Teal QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 1

Whatever Oxted goes on to do in the future, he is guaranteed a special place in the affections of his trainer, Roger Teal, and regular jockey, Cieren Fallon Jr. He provided the pair with their first Group 1 triumphs when landing the Darley July Cup at Newmarket this summer. It was a decisive success too, gained after a similarly authoritative win on his comeback. Oxted's official rating has risen to 120 and, still lightly raced, the four-year-old's best days may still be to come.

DREAM OF DREAMS Trainer: Sir Michael Stoute QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 1

Nobody could begrudge Dream Of Dreams a big win at Ascot. He finished fast when beaten a head by Blue Point in the Diamond Jubilee Stakes at the Royal Meeting in 2019 and it was a similar story this summer when he lost by that margin to Hello Youmzain in the same race. However, he finally and deservedly got his QIPCO British Champions Series account off the mark with a commanding victory in the Betfair Sprint Cup in September. Two previous runs in the QIPCO British Champions Sprint have brought no joy but he looked in great heart when an easy winner of the Group 2 Unibet Hungerford Stakes at Newbury in August, also by seven lengths.

GLEN SHIEL Trainer: Archie Watson QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 0

Glen Shiel began his career in France with Andre Fabre and was having only his third start in Britain when fourth in the Balmoral Handicap (Sponsored by QIPCO) on QIPCO British Champions Day last year. He has since thrived on a busy schedule, winning four of his subsequent races and running better than ever last time when beating all bar Dream Of Dreams under regular rider Hollie Doyle in the Betfair Sprint Cup. He went off 25/1 that day but is unlikely to be so underestimated in the betting this time. Another big run seems on the cards.

LAST YEAR'S WINNER: STAR CATCHER

A 250th Group 1 winner for Frankie Dettori as he guided Star Catcher to a thrilling short-head victory over Delphinia, with Sun Maiden a length further back in third. A horse that had looked ever so impressive when winning the Ribblesdale at Royal Ascot, Star Catcher was winning her third successive Group 1 race after previous victories in the Tattersalls Irish Oaks and Qatar Prix Vermeille. She showed great resolution to prevail and John Gosden, her trainer, said: "She was determined to get her head in front and you cannot doubt her courage. She's a wonderful filly." The win also gave owner, Anthony Oppenheimer his third successive win at QIPCO British Champions Day after wins for Cracksman in 2017 and 2018.

EVEN SO Trainer: Ger Lyons QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 0

Even So is bred for middle distances and relished stepping up to a mile-and-a-half for the first time in the Juddmonte Irish Oaks at The Curragh. Always travelling smoothly, she came from off the pace to win at the main expense of Cayenne Pepper and Passion. The daughter of Camelot had made all the running when previously successful at Gowran Park and Naas, so is clearly versatile regarding tactics. She has looked well served by some give underfoot but has also run well on faster going.

DAME MALLIOT Trainer: Ed Vaughan QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 0

The black-and-white silks of owner Anthony Oppenheimer have been carried with distinction at recent QIPCO British Champions Days. Firstly by two-time QIPCO Champion Stakes winner Cracksman and then the winner of this race last year, Star Catcher. Dame Malliot is another horse in the Oppenheimer colours that could continue this rich vein of form, having won two Group 2 races before being placed in Group 1 company on her past two starts. Her third behind Tarnawa and Raabihah in the Prix Vermeille at Longchamp last time reads well, and she'd gone close in Germany before that.

WONDERFUL TONIGHT Trainer: David Menuisier QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 0

Wonderful Tonight is peaking at just the right time for QIPCO British Champions Day, putting several other British-trained contenders firmly in their place when landing the Group 1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp last time. That was only her seventh run and she is clearly still on an upward curve. Her trainer already has one eye on next year's Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe for her, so evidently believes there is more to come. She's yet to win a race in Britain but has only run here twice, all her other outings being in France.

LAST YEAR'S WINNER: KING OF CHANGE

A day to savour for Richard Hannon and Sean Levey as King Of Change ran out a decisive length-and-a-quarter winner from prolific French raider The Revenant. King Of Change had been given the summer off after finishing runner-up in the QIPCO 2000 Guineas at Newmarket and the decision paid dividends. He appeared to relish the conditions and the result never really looked in much doubt. King Of Change was also giving his jockey a first taste of success at QIPCO British Champions Day, and his trainer a first winner on the day since Olympic Glory back in 2013.

POSSIBLE CONTENDERS THIS YEAR:

PALACE PIER Trainer: John Gosden QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 1

Five races have yielded five wins for Palace Pier and an increasingly growing reputation. The best three-year-old miler around? Quite possibly. He came of age when outstaying Pinatubo and Wichita in the St James's Palace Stakes at Royal Ascot in June and followed up with a fluent success in the Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville, when he won at the main expense of Alpine Star. The Kingman colt has shown he can win on ground ranging between good to firm and soft and seems certain to take some stopping.

KAMEKO Trainer: Andrew Balding QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 1

Kameko became the fastest QIPCO 2000 Guineas winner in history when winning at Newmarket in June, despite meeting some traffic problems. He's since finished fourth three times in succession but there have been mitigating reasons. He didn't seem to stay in the Investec Derby at Epsom and then met trouble-in-running in the Qatar Sussex Stakes at Goodwood, before again seemingly being betrayed by a lack of stamina in the Juddmonte International at York. Back over a mile last time out in the Shadwell Joel Stakes, Kameko returned to peak form beating Benbatl and Regal Reality under a Group 1 penalty.

CIRCUS MAXIMUS Trainer: Aidan O'Brien QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 2

Circus Maximus is established as one of the best milers in training and his two previous visits to Ascot have both yielded Group 1 victories. He dug deep to land the St James's Palace Stakes at the Royal Meeting last year and showed similar resolution to scoop the Queen Anne Stakes this summer. The tough son of Galileo, who has since placed in the Qatar Sussex Stakes, Prix Jacques le Marois and Prix Moulin can again be relied upon to give his all.

LAST YEAR’S WINNER: MAGICAL

Aidan O’Brien hailed Magical as “the ultimate racehorse” after she had travelled powerfully throughout and ran on strongly to score by three-quarters of a length from the staying-on Addeybb. One of the most versatile horses around, Magical had finished fifth in the Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe just 13 days earlier where she finished behind winner Waldgeist and old foe, Enable. This was another result that never really looked in doubt on the day and she will be aiming to replicate that performance this year and become only the second horse to win back-to-back renewals of the QIPCO Champion Stakes, as well as the first horse to win three races on the day.

POSSIBLE CONTENDERS THIS YEAR INCLUDE:

ADDEYBB Trainer: William Haggas QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 0

The soft-ground loving Addeybb beat all bar Magical in last year’s running of the QIPCO Champion Stakes and has continued to flourish this year, winning successive Group 1 prizes in Australia in the spring. He marked his return to these shores by finishing second to Lord North in the Prince of Wales’s Stakes at Royal Ascot and on his latest start showed typical determination to go one better in Listed company at Ayr. He’s tremendously consistent and again seems sure to be in the thick of the action.

MAGICAL Trainer: Aidan O’Brien QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 2

No horse has ever won three times on QIPCO British Champions Day but few people would bet against Magical achieving the feat. The daughter of Galileo won the QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes two years ago and 12 months ago, returned to land this prize. Connections initially retired her, but the decision to delay her second career as a broodmare this term has been fully vindicated with three more Group 1 victories (taking her haul to seven) being achieved. She’s admirably consistent and versatile regarding the ground. On her most recent start, she managed to get the better of Ghaiyyath in their second meeting, in the Irish Champion Stakes.

MISHRIFF Trainer: John Gosden QIPCO British Champions Series wins: 0

Mishriff has thrived on his racing this year, looking ideally served by this race’s trip of a mile and a quarter. The form of his victory in a Listed race at Newmarket in early June proved extremely strong and he then became the first British-trained colt since 2014 to win the Prix Du Jockey Club (French Derby) at Chantilly. On his latest start, he returned to France to win a Group 2 prize in emphatic style at Deauville. Seemingly at home on any type of ground, another bold bid seems assured.

LAST YEAR'S WINNER: ESCOBAR

A second win in the Balmoral Handicap (sponsored by QIPCO) for trainer David O'Meara as Escobar ran out a game winner of the one-mile contest. Held up throughout by a patient Adam Kirby, Escobar was travelling strongly two furlongs out. Coming from the back of the field is never easy in a larger handicap, but Escobar carved his way through. He hit the front just under a furlong out and found it a little lonely but stayed on strongly for a 2 ¼ length success at the line. Subsequent Group 1 winner, Lord North also came from off the pace to finish second and add strong substance to the form.

HISTORY OF THE RACE

Named after the castle in Scotland that has belonged to the British Royal Family since it was purchased by Prince Albert, consort to Queen Victoria, in 1852, the Balmoral Handicap was inaugurated in 2014.

A race known as the Balmoral Handicap had previously been staged over five furlongs at the Royal Meeting but was discontinued in 2004 in favour of the new Windsor Forest Stakes for fillies and mares. The Ascot Executive always intended to bring the name back when the appropriate opportunity arose, and Her Majesty The Queen graciously consented to it being re-introduced on QIPCO British Champions Day.

The new Balmoral Handicap Sponsored by QIPCO, with its £100,000 race value, has quickly become established as one of the most prestigious events of its kind anywhere in Europe.

In its inaugural running, the race could not have had a more popular winner than Marcus Tregoning's Bronze Angel, twice the winner of the Cambridgeshire.

In 2019, another strong renewal unfolded with the talented and well-supported, Escobar running out the victor. It was the second time in three years that David O'Meara had secured the valuable handicap.

A DECADE OF CHAMPIONS

QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS SERIES

This year we celebrate the 10th year of both QIPCO British Champions Day and QIPCO British Champions Series. The Series and the Day have since borne witness to some of the most memorable performances in British Racing history. Below we pick out some of the highlights from across the 10 years.

DREAM AHEAD - 2011 Darley July Cup

What better way to make headlines in year one than for Hayley Turner to become the first woman to win the Darley July Cup. An even jump resulted in Dream Ahead receiving plenty of cover for the six-furlong sprint on Newmarket's July Course. Travelling well throughout, there was a moment of worry as the pair met traffic a furlong out, but once a gap appeared Turner coaxed her mount clear just in time for a half length success over Bated Breath.

FRANKEL - 2012 Juddmonte International

No highlights piece would be complete without featuring the highest rated racehorse of all time, Frankel. His Juddmonte International victory at York's Ebor meeting was arguably one of his best. Faced with 10 furlongs for the first time Frankel broke slowly and was held up by regular rider, Tom Queally. With the race formation remaining largely unchanged throughout, Queally turned the screw three furlongs out. The horsepower underneath was clear for all to see, as the unbeaten colt breezed past his rivals effortlessly. Quickly it became a question of how far. The end result was seven lengths, beating old adversary Farhh and multiple Group 1 winner, St Nicholas Abbey with ease.

TORONADO - 2013 Qatar Sussex Stakes

An unforgettable battle at the Sussex venue between two seriously talented milers. The race was billed to be a 'Duel on the Downs' between QIPCO 2000 Guineas and St James's Palace winner Dawn Approach and Toronado, who was beaten by the former in both races. The tables, however, were turned on this occasion. The two protagonists battled ferociously up the straight with an outcome not clear until the last 100 yards; Toronado digging in and bagging the Group 1 his talent so richly deserved.

AUSTRALIA - 2014 Investec Derby

Narrowly beaten in a hot renewal of the QIPCO 2000 Guineas, Australia got his just reward in a dominant display in the Investec Derby. Sent off the 11/8 favourite for the British Classic, the Galileo colt made steady progress under Joseph O'Brien throughout the 1m 4f contest. When O'Brien pushed go, Australia responded and ran out a ready winner, holding off future St Leger winner Kingston Hill in second. It was the last British Classic Joseph O'Brien won before his retirement from the saddle.

MINDING - 2016 Investec Oaks

Superstar filly Minding lit up the 2016 QIPCO British Champions Series with wins bookending the season in the QIPCO 1000 Guineas and Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (sponsored by QIPCO). However it was her win in the Investec Oaks that will go down as one of her most memorable. It wasn't the distance of the win, but more the nature of the win that was most impressive. Travelling in midfield, Minding encountered numerous traffic problems after rounding Tattenham Corner and found herself shuffled back to the rear of the field. Remaining cool, jockey Ryan Moore found a gap and asked the three-year-old filly to pick up. Pick up she did, eating into the ground she had lost, eventually overhauling runaway leader, Architecture by 1 3/4 lengths at the line.

BIG ORANGE - 2017 Gold Cup

One of the most memorable duels QIPCO British Champions Series, and British racing, has ever seen. Two prominent faces in the staying category, Order of St George and public-favourite Big Orange, treated spectators to a thrilling climax in the 2017 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot. Big Orange made most of the running before the well-fancied, Order of St George came to join him inside the last furlong of the marathon contest. The two stayers eye-balled each other, each head-bob resulting in the lead changing hands before Big Orange gamely held off his challenger, sparking jubilant scenes.

ROARING LION - 2018 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (sponsored by QIPCO)

A fitting end to what had been a fantastic 2018 for Qatar Racing's leading light. Roaring Lion had been a not-far-beaten fifth in the QIPCO 2000 Guineas, before an even bigger run to finish third in the Investec Derby, but truly never looked back from there. Victories in the Coral-Eclipse, Juddmonte International and Irish Champion Stakes before a gutsy performance in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (sponsored by QIPCO) rounded off a truly golden summer for both the horse and his young pilot Oisín Murphy. On ground not to his liking, the son of Kitten's Joy gamely fought his way to the front late on to secure a thoroughly deserved victory.

ENABLE - 2019 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth QIPCO Stakes

Like Frankel, no highlights reel would be complete without the Queen of British racing in recent years - Enable. So many QIPCO British Champions Series victories to choose from, yet her second win in the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth QIPCO Stakes was one of her finest. The race was billed to be a head-to-head between Enable and Prince of Wales's Stakes champion Crystal Ocean, and that's exactly what spectators were treated to. For the final two furlongs both horses went hell for leather; Enable joined Crystal Ocean upsides but the five-year-old colt would not back down. However, the classy mare had just too much for the game challenger and eventually got the better in the closing stages, winning by a neck.

MAGICAL - 2019 QIPCO Champion Stakes

Magical has made QIPCO British Champions Day her own over recent years. In 2018 she secured an impressive win in the QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes before returning one year later to win the QIPCO Champion Stakes. One of only three horses to have won two races at QIPCO British Champions Day, and only the second to win two different races. The other - Frankel, so she is in elite company. Her QIPCO Champion Stakes win was as impressive as any, traveling well throughout the contest, the result never looked in much doubt as she held off Addeybb late on.

STRADIVARIUS - 2020 Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup

A horse that has dominated the staying division in recent times, Stradivarius has been a shining star across QIPCO British Champions Series and QIPCO British Champions Day. However, this year's Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup was one for the record books. Goodwood, a course with a reputation for hard luck stories, looked to have woven another. Two furlongs out Stradivarius was boxed in, short of room and Frankie Dettori was visibly anxious. But mercifully for his legions of fans, the gap came, and once it did the response was instant. For a two-mile specialist, Stradivarius' turn of foot is devastating and that proved to be the case here as he scorched past long-time leader Nayef Road. Four Al Shaqab Goodwood Cups - a record that won't be touched for quite some time.

TITLE PARTNER QIPCO HOLDING

The series is sponsored by QIPCO Holding, one of the leading private, family run, investment companies in Qatar.

Established in 1999 and based in Doha, QIPCO has since developed and diversified its international portfolio of business interests which currently include real estate, construction, oil and gas, trading and services, finance and health services. In more recent years, QIPCO has made a significant investment in horseracing, not only as sponsors but also as owners and breeders through its global racing and bloodstock subsidiary, Qatar Racing.

Qatar Racing have almost 100 horses in training around the world alongside their successful, international breeding operation which was established in 2010, following the purchase of the World champion miler Makfi, and is based at Tweenhills in Gloucestershire.

Qatar Investment & Projects Development Holding Company (QIPCO Holding) is owned by six brothers whom are members of the Qatari Royal family. The Chief Executive, Sheikh Hamad bin Abdullah al Thani and his brothers are cousins of the Emir of the State of Qatar. Since the company's inception, the group has diversified to form individual subsidiaries each operating independently and specialising in various fields of expertise.

In 2011 QIPCO became the inaugural sponsors of British Champions Series and in June 2015 a landmark, multi-million pound deal secured QIPCO's on-going support for the series and British racing for a further ten years until 2024.

As title Partner, QIPCO enjoys exclusive naming rights for the series and full partnerships rights for the £2.5million QIPCO British Champions Day climax at Ascot which, despite the impact of coronavirus, retains its position as the richest day's racing in Great Britain and is the finale of the British Flat racing season. The feature race of the day, the QIPCO Champion Stakes will be run for £750,000, making it the most valuable British race to be contested this year.

QIPCO is the official partner of the Guineas Festival at Newmarket's Rowley Mile Racecourse which launched QIPCO British Champions Series with the QIPCO 2000 and 1000 Guineas. Also included in the sponsorship portfolio is the Goffs London Sale and the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth QIPCO Stakes at Ascot in July. Under the deal signed in 2015, QIPCO is an official commercial partner with Ascot Racecourse, including Royal Ascot.

Sheikh Fahad bin Abdullah Al Thani, Director of QIPCO and Chairman of Qatar Racing:

"My brothers and I are very proud that QIPCO are title sponsors of British Champions Day, the richest day's racing in Britain and the finale of the British Flat racing season, for the tenth year running. We consider British racing to be the best, rich in history and heritage, and we want to help further promote the popularity and prosperity of racing here in the UK.

By partnering with events that enjoy such a prestigious reputation we increase awareness of QIPCO to an international audience and provide the perfect platform for us to showcase the stallions owned by our subsidiary, Qatar Racing. We are delighted to be able to give international breeders the opportunity to visit our stallions and are hugely thankful to breeders for their ongoing support.

QIPCO British Champions Day sees the best of the best coming together to compete on a global stage in a bid to be crowned a Champion. Last year's highlight was seeing our retained jockey, Oisin Murphy, crowned Champion Jockey for the first time – a title very much deserved." For more information please visit: qipco.com.qa
